THE NATIONAL ATHLETIC TRAINERS ASSOCIATION
DISTRICT NINE NEWSLETTER

SEPTEMBER, 1969
By Mickey Cobb

The August 8, 1969, Coaches Clinic provided the coaches of Georgia a real good program in terms of controlling athletic injuries. The program on injuries included: "Head and Neck Injuries in Football Players" - Dr. William W. Moore, Neurological Surgeon, Atlanta; "Injuries Involving the Upper Extremity" - Dr. Frank C. McCue, Team Physician, University of Virginia; "Weight Training for Athletics" - Mr. Sam Mrvos, Supervisor, Weight Training Program, University of Georgia Athletes; "Preseason Evaluation for Athletic Participation" - M. D. Pittard, M.D., General Practitioner, Tocca, Georgia; "Early Season Heat Problems" - William Earl Lewis, M.D., Surgeon, Macon Georgia; - "Knee Problems" - A Round Table Discussion - Moderator - Fred L. Allman, M.D., Atlanta; William B. (Butch) Mulherin, M.D., Athens; Hamlin Graham, M.D., Augusta; Mac Freeman, M.D., Auburn University; Taping Demonstration Lower Extremity, Kenny Howard, Head Athletic Trainer, Auburn University; Pat Dyer, Head Athletic Trainer, Georgia Tech; Upper Extremity, Warren Morris, Head Athletic Trainer, University of Georgia; Joe Gieck, Head Athletic Trainer, University of Virginia.

****

Pat Dyer, Georgia Tech, and his training staff provided an excellent athletic training service to the Georgia High School All-Star Basketball and Football teams during the preparation and game duration held in Macon, Georgia, in August.

****

Ronald Lawman, Miami Dade Junior College Head Trainer, will be working on a doctorate degree at the University of Georgia this fall.

****

Mickey Cobb, Georgia Southern College will have an article on ankle sprains published in the Coach and Athlete sometime this fall.

****

Walter Pomerko has accepted the head athletic trainers job at the University of Miami, Florida. "Perk" replaces Dave Wike who resigned to accept the post of Assistant Chief of Security at the University of Miami.